Carly M. Clinton is an associate in Curcio Mirzaian Sirot LLC's Community Association Law practice group. Prior to joining the firm, she worked as an associate at a real estate firm in New York City. Ms. Clinton was recently recognized as a Super Lawyers Rising Star. Her work and expertise have also been featured in the New York Law Journal. Her practice includes community association matters and related litigation, general real estate and lending. She counsels a range of clients including numerous community association boards throughout New Jersey and New York.

Additionally, she has extensive experience representing lending banks in their lending transactions for purchases and refinances. She has handled loans for cooperatives, condominiums and investment properties. She also has experience representing both boards and developers in litigation over construction defects. She has broad expertise in landlord-tenant matters involving right of succession proceedings, non-primary residence proceedings, nuisance cases, licensee proceedings, and lease expiration holdovers.

Ms. Clinton completed her law degree at Hofstra University's Maurice A. Deane School of Law. She also served as the Communications and Development Editor for the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel Law Journal. She graduated from St. John's University with a B.A., magna cum laude, in Psychology.

Ms. Clinton is admitted to practice law in the states of New York and New Jersey and is admitted to practice federally in the Southern District and Eastern District of New York.
